Important Notice Concerning Rules:

Kata match - at the end of the competitor's Kata performance, the Referee (SHUSHIN) will announce HANTEI, followed by whistle sound, then only the Judges (FUKUSHIN) will raise their flags simultaneously and after giving sufficient time for the votes to be counted (approximately 5 seconds) the flags will be lowered after an additional short whistle sound by the referee. The Referee will then declare the winner. The judges (FUKUSHIN) should decide the winner and raise either red or white flag, in the event of a draw the referee will announce Hikiwake then Saishiai (rematch).

In the rematch - at the end of the competitor's Kata performance, the Referee (SHUSHIN) will announce HANTEI, followed by whistle sound, then he will raise his flag simultaneously with the Judges (FUKUSHIN) and after giving sufficient time for the votes to be counted (approximately 5 seconds) the flags will be lowered after an additional short whistle sound by the referee. The Referee will then declare the winner. The judges (FUKUSHIN) should decide the winner and raise either red or white flag, and they should avoid a draw decision to avoid schedule delays.

In case of Kumite, after ending the time of the match, and the scores are equal, the Referee (SHUSHIN) will announce Hikiwake. Then an enchosen extension for one minute will be held, whereby the winner will be the first to score (Saki-dori). In the event of a further tie if no one scores the judges must decide aka or shiro.

Aka (red) can wear white or red hand pads and optional red shin guards

Shiro (white) can wear white or blue hand pads and optional blue shin guards
